

Iron County Register

BY ELI D. AKE.
BRANTON, MISSOURI.

NEWS AND NOTES.

A Summary of Important Events.

The Prohibition Convention, in session at Indianapolis, raised over $30,000 for campaign purposes on the 31st, inside of one hour.

The third convention of the National Association of German-American Journalists and Authors met in Philadelphia on the 28th.

It was reported at Berlin, on the 28th, that M. Waddington, the French Ambassador at London, is about to be succeeded by M. De Freycinet.

Nearly five thousand saloons in Philadelphia closed their doors to open no more, at midnight on the 31st, when the Brooks Liquor law went into effect.

The Missouri Pacific Railway Company, on the 1st, defaulted in the payment of $772,708 interest, and several other items of indebtedness due on that date.

EMPEROR FREDERICK went from Berlin to Potsdam, on the yacht Alexandria, the 1st. He was enthusiastically cheered by the populace. The trip seemed to him good.

MRS. SHERIDAN sent to Senator Manderson, on the 29th, the thanks of General Sheridan for the good work he had done in reviving the grade of General and passed the Senate.

FOUR THOUSAND FRENCHMEN and ITALIANS met at Marseilles, France, on the 27th, and adopted resolutions protesting against Italy's foreign policy, particularly her alliance with Germany.

E. S. AND H. D. ACHUNKLOSS, racing along Katrina, which has been in course of construction at City Island, N. Y., during the past few months, was successfully launched on the 29th.

A MYSTERIOUS fire started, on the 28th, in Scotland Yard police headquarters in London, in a room where the government records of dynamites are kept. Not much damage was done.

MOLLIE GARBFIELD will be married at Mentor, O., to her father's private secretary, J. Stanley Brown, on the 14th. At the same time and place one of her brothers will marry Miss Mary Brown.

JUDGE THURMAN denies the report that he has consented to the use of his name as a candidate for the office of Vice-President. He has not been consulted, and is a candidate for no office.

The Chief of Engineers reports that the construction of the proposed breakwater in Santa Monica, England, is entirely feasible, but its cost will be necessarily great, probably not less than $50,000.

The Washington newspaper correspondents, en route to the Democratic National convention at St. Louis, will lay over for a few hours at Indianapolis, Ind., on the 31st, the editors of that city.

GENERAL CLINTON B. FISKE was unanimously nominated for the Presidency by the Prohibition convention at Indianapolis on the 31st. John A. Brooks, of Missouri, was nominated for Vice-President.

LORD STANLEY, the newly appointed Governor-General of Canada, expresses confidence in the Canadian Ministry, and says he has no preconceived ideas of policy to force upon an unwilling people.

ARCHBISHOP WALSH has received instructions from Rome to publish in the Dublin Freeman a letter which states that the erroneous views that have found expression with regard to the papal rescript.

The alleged newspaper man who recently sailed on the Saratonic and created comment by his lavish display of wealth, is said to have been John K. Miles, who is wanted in Philadelphia for forgery.

The secret of the failure of the Senate committee on the judiciary to make a report on the case of Mr. Fuller, is certain charges preferred by one Dudley, of Chicago, which the committee have under investigation.

OVER 5,000 persons witnessed the game of baseball played at Buffalo, N. Y., on the 1st, between the newboys of the Detroit (Mich.) Evening Journal and those of the Buffalo (N. Y.) News. The latter won by a score of 18 to 2.

M. GOREY, in his speech in the French Chamber of Deputies, on the 31st, in reply to an interpolation regarding the Tizic incident, hinted at a line drawn beyond which none of the enemies of France would be allowed to go.

The President, Secretaries Whitney and Fairchild and Colonel Lamont left Washington, on the 29th, for New York, to attend the Memorial Day services in that city and Brooklyn. In New York they were joined by Secretary Endicott.

E. V. READERS, cashier of the First National Bank of Paris, O., was arrested quietly, on the 28th, and gave bond for his appearance before the United States Commissioner, on a charge of embezzling, and taking away funds of the bank.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad announced, on the 30th, that, beginning June 4, its first-class freight rate from Chicago to St. Paul will be forty cents instead of the former rate of 45 cents, with a corresponding reduction in the other classes.

The North German Gazette asserts that Duke Adolphe of Nassau will succeed to the rule of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg upon the death of the present incumbent, King William of Holland, and that when this event takes place the Grand Duchy will again become part of the German Empire.

MR. BLAINE wrote a letter to the New York Tribune, under date of May 17, which appeared in that paper on the 30th, in which he positively refuses to be a candidate for the presidential nomination and asserts that he would not accept should the nomination be made against his protest.

The Democrats expect to get a vote on the Mills Tariff bill without any further amendments than those they offered, and to win in caucus, and believe they will not lose more than four votes in their party, if indeed that many. Three or four want an amendment to the internal revenue section, but it is not probable that it will carry.

SENATOR GEORGE HEARST, of California, purchased, for his recent visit to the City of Mexico, 2,000,000 acres of sugar, coffee and tobacco lands, located in the State of Vera Cruz. He also obtained, in connection with other California capitalists, important concessions for the building of a new railroad from the City of Mexico to the Pacific ocean.

P. S. MOORE, editor of the Ringoes Monitor, a religious paper, was arrested, on the 30th, at Trenton, N. J., for stealing a horse from Rev. Chas. W. Pitzer, of the Ringoes Presbyterian Church. Moore attempted to jump into the canal when arrested, and has since threatened to commit suicide. He admitted the theft and has been expelled from the church.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on the 28th, it was determined to consider the Fisheries treaty with Great Britain with open doors. The legislation of the Fisheries treaty was already had on the question was removed. In the House, under the call of States bills were introduced by Mr. Chesley, of Indiana, to retire on pay, and soldiers and sailors who were wounded in battle during the war of 1861-65, to be paid for the services of the war, and by Mr. Plumb, of Illinois, to provide for refunding the National debt by a new issue of bonds.

In the Senate, on the 29th, the first executive session with open doors for the consideration of the Fisheries treaty was held. Sen. Frye leading the debate. At the conclusion of his speech, Senator Gray obtained the floor, but on motion of Mr. Beck, who said that he and other Senators desired to attend the St. Louis convention, further consideration of the treaty was postponed until June 11. Motions to publish the proceedings in executive session (past and future) in the Congressional Record were also made and agreed to. Pending a motion by Mr. Morgan to postpone further consideration of the treaty until December, the Senate after passing the bill to revise the grade of general in the army, in order to honor General Sheridan, adjourned until the 30th.

In the House, on the 29th, consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was resumed, in committee of the whole, and several amendments were adopted. The House then went to the committee of the whole on the Tariff bill, considering it by sections under the five-minute rule.

In the Senate, on the 1st, the chief features of the proceedings were the prompt confirmation of the nomination of Lieutenant-General Sherman to the office of General of the Army, and discussion of the question of education of the Indians. In the House, the bill to revise the grade of general in the army, in order to honor General Sheridan, was passed by a viva voce vote. The House then went to the committee of the whole on the Tariff bill, considering it by sections under the five-minute rule.

THE twenty-eighth annual convention of the National Brewers' Association convened in St. Paul, Minn., on the 30th.

C. H. TUPPER, M. P., of Pictou, N. S., in speech on the 30th, in the House of Commons, in relation to the appointment of Minister of Marine and Fisheries, in place of Hon. Mr. Foster, who has been appointed Minister of Finance.

ARCHBISHOP LOGUE, coadjutor Archbishop of Montreal, presided over the Bishop's meeting in Dublin on the 30th. He was on a confirmation tour, and was at Dungannon when he was suddenly taken ill. The president of the Episcopal meeting.

DECORATION DAY was very generally observed throughout the country.

AVENUE where the Derby at Epsom Downs, England, on the 29th, was won by second, and Van Dieman's Land, third.

MR. BLAINE'S last letter, published in the New York Tribune, of the 30th, is generally agreed to by the newspapers as the last of his public life, and a withdrawal from the presidential race.

PROF. R. D. ILLING, a grand-nephew of Washington Irving, died of paralysis at Madison, Wis., on the 30th.

HON. JOHN W. LEVERING, of Baltimore, whose name had been prominently mentioned for nomination for Vice-President by the Prohibitionists, telegraphed to Indianapolis, on the 30th, that he would not be induced to accept the nomination.

The Berlin National Zeitung, of the 30th, says that Henry Villard, under powerful auspices, is planning a German expedition to the South pole.

The Grand Duke Paul of Russia has been made honorary Colonel of the Austrian Uhlan regiment of Alexander III.

The Berlin National Zeitung states that Prof. Virchow, after examining the Emperor's throat, on the 29th, said that he found the glands perfectly healthy, and that the results of the examination were satisfactory.

The settlers along Spring creek, in Pennington County, Dak., fled, with their families, to Rapid City and other towns, on the 29th, because their father had been killed by a party of Indians.

The bed of a wagon containing a farmer named Albion and his family floated from the truck while fording Sappa creek, in Fergus County, Mont., on the 29th, and capsized. A four-year-old daughter of the farmer, and Bertha Burger, an orphan child, were drowned.

The Pope gave audience to the Bishop of Geneva, on the 29th.

The cabinet of New South Wales refuses to modify its anti-Chinese policy. The President, on the 29th, vetoed the bill providing for aliphic building at Columbus, Ga.

The eviction campaign at Loughrea, Ireland, has come to an end. All the tenants have paid the amount due, less the abatement offered.

SENATORS PALMER and Manderson delivered Decoration Day orations at Arlington, Va.

MR. CAMERLAIN has been elected president of the Birmingham (England) Liberal Unionist Society.

The committee to invite the President and Mrs. Cleveland to be present at the Exposition at Cincinnati left for Washington on the 29th.

The California Democratic excursion to the St. Louis convention, including the alterations, arrived at Omaha, Neb., on the 29th, and left for St. Louis, on the 30th. There were three car-loads in the party.

MR. PARRELL has returned to London in order to be present at the opening of the Exhibition. His health has improved.

An attachment was placed on the property of the Security Mining Company, at West Cliff, Col., on the 31st, and the sheriff of that county is in charge of the same.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

Cut-worms and chinch-bugs are getting in their work in many localities. James McConnel, a trader, residing at Phillips, on the 31st, aged fifty-one years.

FRANCE, which is hardly over a hard time over the coming exhibition, England declined to take part, and now Hungary withdraws. The Ministry, however, hail with delight a trouble which assails them from without, as serving to attract attention away from internal affairs.

The nomination of Mr. Fuller to the Chief-Justiceship was again before the Senate committee on the judiciary, on the 29th, but no action was reached.

BRANKMAN WOLF was killed and Conductor Everett seriously injured in a wreck on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, near Shamokin, Pa., on the 31st. Forty cars of merchandise were smashed to pieces.

JOHN M. SCOTT, a moulder, of Reading, Pa., during a quarrel with his wife, on the 31st, cut her throat with a large butcher knife across his own throat. Both are in a critical condition.

The boiler of the steamer Fulton exploded while the steamer was in the gulf, at the mouth of the Mississippi river, on the 31st, instantly killing the pilot, Edward Perkins, fatally wounding Captain W. H. Hiddle and two colored deck hands, and demolishing the boat.

BARON VON MEHRENHHEIM, the Russian Ambassador to Paris, gave a banquet and reception to the President of the Senate on the 31st. All of the Cabinet Ministers and many prominent statesmen and diplomats were present.

GENERAL R. F. BUTLER put himself on record on the 31st as a Sherman man. William Tecumseh Sherman man. He said General Sherman would prove a sure winner if run by the Republican party; and that he could possess a safe conscience in his brother John's hands.

THREE seats were sold in the New York Exchange on the 1st. The prices obtained were $970, $960 and $955. A few years ago memberships in the Exchange were worth $5,000.

DR. MACKENZIE introduced his royal patient, on the 31st, a six-year-old lad on whom he had performed the operation of trepanomy a year ago. "Yellow fever" made the Emperor "wondrous kind". He loaded his little visitor with presents and invited him to call again.

MISS ELEANOR CLEMENS, of St. Louis, and Miss Annie Smith, of Maryland, were registered at the Hotel de Ville, in Paris, on the 31st, on the occasion of the visit of the Sacred Heart at Maryville, a few days ago, with impressive ceremonies.

The name of post-office Boston, in Clinton County, has been changed to Aisle.

Patrick Barthen, a conductor on a St. Louis street-car line, found a pocket-book in his car containing $208, and restored it to the owner.

Information has been received of the death of John W. Randall, late a resident and prominent business man of St. Louis, but who has for the past few years been in Europe.

Complete official returns from Vernon County show the Wood Local-Option amendment to have been defeated by a majority of 1,000.

MR. STANLEY CUPPES, of St. Louis, has received a letter from Paris to the effect that W. H. Howe, the St. Louis artist who is at present studying in Paris, has been awarded a gold medal by the Paris salon for his animal painting.

The customs collections in St. Louis for the month of May amounted to $272,333. The amount collected this year up to the 31st of May was $2,400,000, or 18.5 per cent. of the total for the year.

GENERAL HENRY BIERGE died of apoplexy in New York on the 1st.

An explosion of unknown cause occurred in the Eureka Iron-works, at Wyandotte, Mich., on the 1st, by which three employees lost their lives.

The Queen Regent of Spain unveiled the new statue of Columbus at Barcelona, on the 1st, amid great rejoicing.

MINISTER PHELPS will sail from New York for England on the 13th.

The body of Miss Adele Menard, of New York City, who committed suicide, on the 28th, because her father had been killed by a party of Indians, was found floating in the Mississippi river on the 31st.

The House passed the Senate bill to revise the rank of the army on the 1st. It was soon after signed by the President, who immediately sent the nomination of Philip Henry Sheridan for the position to the Senate.

The Senate confirmed the appointment of Mr. Sherman as President of its action. During the afternoon Senators Hawley and Manderson called and placed the General's commission in the hands of his wife.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

The Senate was not in session on the 31st. In the House proceedings, the principal feature was the passage of the Agricultural Appropriation bill. The House then went into committee of the whole on the Tariff bill, the pending amendment being that of Mr. Sherman, which would strike from the free list lumber, hewn and squared, and used for spars and wharves, which was rejected. The third paragraph of the bill, which authorized the President to suspend the tariff on lumber for a period of six months, was then read and taken up for consideration. Mr. Bayne (Penn.) moved to strike it out. After some debate the amendment was rejected, and the House at five o'clock adjourned.

TEMPLE, the American bicyclist, won two races in Dublin, on the 31st, defeating a local champion, and Wood, of England, in the other.

ALLEN STURGIS, charged with robbery and incendiarism, at Augusta, Ga., was taken from jail by a gang of masked men, on the 31st, and lynched.

PROF. ANDERSON, principal of the Spencer (Ind.) High School, and Misses Clara and Tillie Homaday, were drowned by the capsizing of a boat on Lake Michigan, on the 31st. The boat was carrying eleven-year-old lad, who accompanied them, swam ashore and saved his life.

The report of Joy Gould's serious illness is not credited at his office in the Western Union building in New York City.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

Cut-worms and chinch-bugs are getting in their work in many localities. James McConnel, a trader, residing at Phillips, on the 31st, aged fifty-one years.

FRANCE, which is hardly over a hard time over the coming exhibition, England declined to take part, and now Hungary withdraws. The Ministry, however, hail with delight a trouble which assails them from without, as serving to attract attention away from internal affairs.

The nomination of Mr. Fuller to the Chief-Justiceship was again before the Senate committee on the judiciary, on the 29th, but no action was reached.

BRANKMAN WOLF was killed and Conductor Everett seriously injured in a wreck on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, near Shamokin, Pa., on the 31st. Forty cars of merchandise were smashed to pieces.

JOHN M. SCOTT, a moulder, of Reading, Pa., during a quarrel with his wife, on the 31st, cut her throat with a large butcher knife across his own throat. Both are in a critical condition.

The boiler of the steamer Fulton exploded while the steamer was in the gulf, at the mouth of the Mississippi river, on the 31st, instantly killing the pilot, Edward Perkins, fatally wounding Captain W. H. Hiddle and two colored deck hands, and demolishing the boat.

BARON VON MEHRENHHEIM, the Russian Ambassador to Paris, gave a banquet and reception to the President of the Senate on the 31st. All of the Cabinet Ministers and many prominent statesmen and diplomats were present.

GENERAL R. F. BUTLER put himself on record on the 31st as a Sherman man. William Tecumseh Sherman man. He said General Sherman would prove a sure winner if run by the Republican party; and that he could possess a safe conscience in his brother John's hands.

THREE seats were sold in the New York Exchange on the 1st. The prices obtained were $970, $960 and $955. A few years ago memberships in the Exchange were worth $5,000.

DR. MACKENZIE introduced his royal patient, on the 31st, a six-year-old lad on whom he had performed the operation of trepanomy a year ago. "Yellow fever" made the Emperor "wondrous kind". He loaded his little visitor with presents and invited him to call again.

MISS ELEANOR CLEMENS, of St. Louis, and Miss Annie Smith, of Maryland, were registered at the Hotel de Ville, in Paris, on the 31st, on the occasion of the visit of the Sacred Heart at Maryville, a few days ago, with impressive ceremonies.

The name of post-office Boston, in Clinton County, has been changed to Aisle.

Patrick Barthen, a conductor on a St. Louis street-car line, found a pocket-book in his car containing $208, and restored it to the owner.

Information has been received of the death of John W. Randall, late a resident and prominent business man of St. Louis, but who has for the past few years been in Europe.

Complete official returns from Vernon County show the Wood Local-Option amendment to have been defeated by a majority of 1,000.

MR. STANLEY CUPPES, of St. Louis, has received a letter from Paris to the effect that W. H. Howe, the St. Louis artist who is at present studying in Paris, has been awarded a gold medal by the Paris salon for his animal painting.

The customs collections in St. Louis for the month of May amounted to $272,333. The amount collected this year up to the 31st of May was $2,400,000, or 18.5 per cent. of the total for the year.

GENERAL HENRY BIERGE died of apoplexy in New York on the 1st.

An explosion of unknown cause occurred in the Eureka Iron-works, at Wyandotte, Mich., on the 1st, by which three employees lost their lives.

The Queen Regent of Spain unveiled the new statue of Columbus at Barcelona, on the 1st, amid great rejoicing.

MINISTER PHELPS will sail from New York for England on the 13th.

The body of Miss Adele Menard, of New York City, who committed suicide, on the 28th, because her father had been killed by a party of Indians, was found floating in the Mississippi river on the 31st.

The House passed the Senate bill to revise the rank of the army on the 1st. It was soon after signed by the President, who immediately sent the nomination of Philip Henry Sheridan for the position to the Senate.

The Senate confirmed the appointment of Mr. Sherman as President of its action. During the afternoon Senators Hawley and Manderson called and placed the General's commission in the hands of his wife.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

The Senate was not in session on the 31st. In the House proceedings, the principal feature was the passage of the Agricultural Appropriation bill. The House then went into committee of the whole on the Tariff bill, the pending amendment being that of Mr. Sherman, which would strike from the free list lumber, hewn and squared, and used for spars and wharves, which was rejected. The third paragraph of the bill, which authorized the President to suspend the tariff on lumber for a period of six months, was then read and taken up for consideration. Mr. Bayne (Penn.) moved to strike it out. After some debate the amendment was rejected, and the House at five o'clock adjourned.

TEMPLE, the American bicyclist, won two races in Dublin, on the 31st, defeating a local champion, and Wood, of England, in the other.

ALLEN STURGIS, charged with robbery and incendiarism, at Augusta, Ga., was taken from jail by a gang of masked men, on the 31st, and lynched.

PROF. ANDERSON, principal of the Spencer (Ind.) High School, and Misses Clara and Tillie Homaday, were drowned by the capsizing of a boat on Lake Michigan, on the 31st. The boat was carrying eleven-year-old lad, who accompanied them, swam ashore and saved his life.

The report of Joy Gould's serious illness is not credited at his office in the Western Union building in New York City.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

Cut-worms and chinch-bugs are getting in their work in many localities. James McConnel, a trader, residing at Phillips, on the 31st, aged fifty-one years.

FRANCE, which is hardly over a hard time over the coming exhibition, England declined to take part, and now Hungary withdraws. The Ministry, however, hail with delight a trouble which assails them from without, as serving to attract attention away from internal affairs.

The nomination of Mr. Fuller to the Chief-Justiceship was again before the Senate committee on the judiciary, on the 29th, but no action was reached.

BRANKMAN WOLF was killed and Conductor Everett seriously injured in a wreck on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, near Shamokin, Pa., on the 31st. Forty cars of merchandise were smashed to pieces.

JOHN M. SCOTT, a moulder, of Reading, Pa., during a quarrel with his wife, on the 31st, cut her throat with a large butcher knife across his own throat. Both are in a critical condition.

The boiler of the steamer Fulton exploded while the steamer was in the gulf, at the mouth of the Mississippi river, on the 31st, instantly killing the pilot, Edward Perkins, fatally wounding Captain W. H. Hiddle and two colored deck hands, and demolishing the boat.

BARON VON MEHRENHHEIM, the Russian Ambassador to Paris, gave a banquet and reception to the President of the Senate on the 31st. All of the Cabinet Ministers and many prominent statesmen and diplomats were present.

GENERAL R. F. BUTLER put himself on record on the 31st as a Sherman man. William Tecumseh Sherman man. He said General Sherman would prove a sure winner if run by the Republican party; and that he could possess a safe conscience in his brother John's hands.

THREE seats were sold in the New York Exchange on the 1st. The prices obtained were $970, $960 and $955. A few years ago memberships in the Exchange were worth $5,000.

DR. MACKENZIE introduced his royal patient, on the 31st, a six-year-old lad on whom he had performed the operation of trepanomy a year ago. "Yellow fever" made the Emperor "wondrous kind". He loaded his little visitor with presents and invited him to call again.

MISS ELEANOR CLEMENS, of St. Louis, and Miss Annie Smith, of Maryland, were registered at the Hotel de Ville, in Paris, on the 31st, on the occasion of the visit of the Sacred Heart at Maryville, a few days ago, with impressive ceremonies.

The name of post-office Boston, in Clinton County, has been changed to Aisle.

Patrick Barthen, a conductor on a St. Louis street-car line, found a pocket-book in his car containing $208, and restored it to the owner.

Information has been received of the death of John W. Randall, late a resident and prominent business man of St. Louis, but who has for the past few years been in Europe.

Complete official returns from Vernon County show the Wood Local-Option amendment to have been defeated by a majority of 1,000.

MR. STANLEY CUPPES, of St. Louis, has received a letter from Paris to the effect that W. H. Howe, the St. Louis artist who is at present studying in Paris, has been awarded a gold medal by the Paris salon for his animal painting.

The customs collections in St. Louis for the month of May amounted to $272,333. The amount collected this year up to the 31st of May was $2,400,000, or 18.5 per cent. of the total for the year.

GENERAL HENRY BIERGE died of apoplexy in New York on the 1st.

An explosion of unknown cause occurred in the Eureka Iron-works, at Wyandotte, Mich., on the 1st, by which three employees lost their lives.

The Queen Regent of Spain unveiled the new statue of Columbus at Barcelona, on the 1st, amid great rejoicing.

MINISTER PHELPS will sail from New York for England on the 13th.

The body of Miss Adele Menard, of New York City, who committed suicide, on the 28th, because her father had been killed by a party of Indians, was found floating in the Mississippi river on the 31st.

The House passed the Senate bill to revise the rank of the army on the 1st. It was soon after signed by the President, who immediately sent the nomination of Philip Henry Sheridan for the position to the Senate.

The Senate confirmed the appointment of Mr. Sherman as President of its action. During the afternoon Senators Hawley and Manderson called and placed the General's commission in the hands of his wife.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

The Senate was not in session on the 31st. In the House proceedings, the principal feature was the passage of the Agricultural Appropriation bill. The House then went into committee of the whole on the Tariff bill, the pending amendment being that of Mr. Sherman, which would strike from the free list lumber, hewn and squared, and used for spars and wharves, which was rejected. The third paragraph of the bill, which authorized the President to suspend the tariff on lumber for a period of six months, was then read and taken up for consideration. Mr. Bayne (Penn.) moved to strike it out. After some debate the amendment was rejected, and the House at five o'clock adjourned.

TEMPLE, the American bicyclist, won two races in Dublin, on the 31st, defeating a local champion, and Wood, of England, in the other.

ALLEN STURGIS, charged with robbery and incendiarism, at Augusta, Ga., was taken from jail by a gang of masked men, on the 31st, and lynched.

PROF. ANDERSON, principal of the Spencer (Ind.) High School, and Misses Clara and Tillie Homaday, were drowned by the capsizing of a boat on Lake Michigan, on the 31st. The boat was carrying eleven-year-old lad, who accompanied them, swam ashore and saved his life.

The report of Joy Gould's serious illness is not credited at his office in the Western Union building in New York City.

MISSOURI STATE NEWS.

Cut-worms and chinch-bugs are getting in their work in many localities. James McConnel, a trader, residing at Phillips, on the 31st, aged fifty-one years.

FRANCE, which is hardly over a hard time over the coming exhibition, England declined to take part, and now Hungary withdraws. The Ministry, however, hail with delight a trouble which assails them from without, as serving to attract attention away from internal affairs.

The nomination of Mr. Fuller to the Chief-Justiceship was again before the Senate committee on the judiciary, on the 29th, but no action was reached.

BRANKMAN WOLF was killed and Conductor Everett seriously injured in a wreck on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, near Shamokin, Pa., on the 31st. Forty cars of merchandise were smashed to pieces.

JOHN M. SCOTT, a moulder, of Reading, Pa., during a quarrel with his wife, on the 31st, cut her throat with a large butcher knife across his own throat. Both are in a critical condition.

The boiler of the steamer Fulton exploded while the steamer was in the gulf, at the mouth of the Mississippi river, on the 31st, instantly killing the pilot, Edward Perkins, fatally wounding Captain W. H. Hiddle and two colored deck hands, and demolishing the boat.

BARON VON MEHRENHHEIM, the Russian Ambassador to Paris, gave a banquet and reception to the President of the Senate on the 31st. All of the Cabinet Ministers and many prominent statesmen and diplomats were present.

GENERAL R. F. BUTLER put himself on record on the 31st as a Sherman man. William Tecumseh Sherman man. He said General Sherman would prove a sure winner if run by the Republican party; and that he could possess a safe conscience in his brother John's hands.